

Dreaming of a panto at the junior school

THE Faringdon Dramatic Society presented the pantomime 'Dreamers' at the Junior School in late January and early February before packed houses. Written by local resident Roger Leitch, directed by Debbie Lock and the orchestra was conducted by Cathy Lloyd. It was a Faringdon take on 'A Midsummer's Night Dream' and set primarily in a castle and in the forest.

The cast of about 70 was made up of several FDS stalwarts and many young people who were very energetic in this performance of music, song and intrigue. Great sets, wonderful costumes and ceaseless activity on stage.
