

Costumes: Jeni Summerfield, Joan Lee
Publicity: Ken Brown, Adrian Wells, Lois Wells
Programmes: Dave Headey
Lighting: Ian Chandler, Eric Partington
Front of House staff: Jill Headey, Denise Monk, Jim Tappenden, Peter Webster

Faringdon Dramatic Society would like to thank:

- Reflections for sale of tickets,
- Faringdon United Church for a rehearsal venue,
- The Corn Exchange Management for their cooperation,
- Karen Brind for dance tuition,
- Ian Chandler for the lighting.

Thanks also to The Swan for provision of the Bar.

We hope you have enjoyed our Music Hall this evening. Our next major production is our annual Pantomime which will be Cinderella by Peter Webster, at Faringdon Community College on January 26-27 and February 2-3, 2001. There will be a matinee performance on both Saturdays. Ticket information is on 01367 244537 - we hope to see you there!

You may be interested to know that our next production is in an Evening of Drama at 7.30pm on Friday 24th November at the Rec Community Hall in Highworth. It is a one act play called "Hell and High Water" and tickets (£5 including refreshments) can be obtained from John Williams (01793 764431).

Faringdon Dramatic Society
(affiliated to NODA)

presents:

an Old Time
MUSIC HALL...
at the Corn Exchange

October 27th & 28th 2000

Your host for the evening:
Mr Gary Bates

A black and white line drawing of a woman in a long, flowing dress, standing with her hands clasped in front of her. She has long, dark hair and is looking towards the left.

Programme

Opening Chorus "Daisy and Sunshine"
Mr Allyn Richardson and the Company

Mr Dave Headey tells the story of Jason and the Arguments

"A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square"
Miss Lucy Walden

Miss Debra Warner treats to a
Piano Recital

Mesdames Carole Tappenden, Carolyn Taylor and Jo Webster are
"Three Little Maids from School"

The Karen Brind Dancers

Misses Catherine Walden, Rebecca Whiffen and Kim Ashdown will perform a Ballet

A Melodrama "The Squire's Evil Plot Foiled" is performed by:

Miss Carole Tappenden Mr Gary Thompson
Miss Rachel Coward Mr Dominic Bullock assisted by Mr Alan Taylor

INTERVAL

when the raffle will be drawn and you have an opportunity to recharge your glasses. A prize will be awarded to the lady or gentleman judged to have the most original attire!

Directed by Mesdames Carolyn Taylor and Debbie Lock

Musical Director: Miss Debra Warner who also provides accomplished accompaniment on the pianoforte

The Company are:

Miss Helen Barter	Mr Gary Bates
Miss Rachel Coward	Mr Ken Brown
Miss Joyce Harrison	Mr Dominic Bullock
Miss Karen Price	Mr Dave Headey
Miss Carole Tappenden	Mr Allyn Richardson
Miss Carolyn Taylor	Mr Gary Thompson
Miss Lucy Walden
Miss Jo Webster

Opening Chorus: "A Military Medley"
The Company

Mr Allyn Richardson sings
"Where'er You Walk" and "Sea Fever"

Miss Helen Barter relates the tale of Albert and the Recumbent Posture

Miss Lucy Walden and Mr Allyn Richardson perform
"The Cats' Duet"

The Teddy Bears Picnic
is performed by

Mr Dominic Bullock with the assistance of Misses Karen Price, Catherine Walden and Katherine Smith

Mr Dave Headey sings of his
"Uncle Walter"

Mr Ken Brown is
"Henery the Eighth"

Final Chorus: "A London Medley"
The Company

THE QUEEN