THE FARINGDON DRAMATIC SOCIETY

(President: Lord Faringdon)

The Society was formed in 1949. Its first productions were staged in the Corn Exchange, until the present premises were acquired. These were renovated and equipped by members and their friends and converted into the Little Theatre which was formally opened in 1953. The Society normally stages three productions each year, and new members with interests in either acting or back-stage work are always welcome. Further information is available from the Secretary - Sam Heath, 3 Coxwell Street, Faringdon (Tel. 2136.)

THE LITTLE THEATRE CLUB

Why not meet your friends of the Dramatic Society from time to time off-stage by becoming a member of the Little Theatre Club?

The annual subscription is only 2/6. Application forms are available during the intervals and after the performance at the Club itself, which adjoins the Theatre. Further particulars can be obtained from the Secretary, G. J. Young.

MAN ALIVE is the forty-first production staged by the Society since its formation.
