KEY IN CANAL PARADE.

He Invited to Make Trip Aboard His Old Flagship Olympia.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Admiral Dewey may take his old flagship, Olympia, through the Panama Canal March in the naval parade. Rear Admiral Clark, retired, has been ordered to command of his old ship, the Olympia, for the occasion, and Secretary of the Navy said this afternoon that he had decided to invite Admiral Dewey to take command of the Olympia. If the Admiral does not feel like making the journey via the canal, he may go overland to San Francisco and board the Olympia upon the arrival of the present fleet there.

President and Secretary Daniels will make addresses upon the arrival of the fleet at the exposition city. It is expected that Admiral Dewey and Admiral Clark also will speak. The entire fleet of midshipmen will be taken to San Francisco for the occasion. This probably takes the place of their annual cruise.

The Oregon and the Olympia will be displayed at a specially constructed wharf which will be an exhibition throughout the exposition. Behind them will be the seven typical modern naval vessels—a dreadnought of the New York class (type, a battleship of the Connecticut or Minnesota type, an armored cruiser of the Tennessee or Missouri type, one of the three scout cruisers, a destroyer, a submarine, and a collier of the latest build. In addition, the entire Atlantic Fleet will remain throughout nearly the whole of the exposition.

Either Admiral Dewey or Rear Admiral Clark has been aboard his ship since relinquishing his command shortly after the close of the Spanish-American war.

ZACATECAS, June 27, via EL PASO, June 28.—Aguascalientes, capital of the States of the Federals, according to information reaching Gen. Villa's headquarters today.

Owing to this, his plan of campaign has been changed, and the troops of the division are returning to Terreon. Part of the division left last night. The rest will leave for the north today. Gen. Villa will follow his troops during the day. Last Wednesday it was announced that the Villa troops would be taken toward Aguan Calientes overland. Late reports show that the losses of the Federals here were much greater than at first supposed. The number of prisoners taken by Villa's troops exceed 4,300. The number of killed was close to that figure.

The latest casualty report of the Constitutionalists was over 700 dead and 1,100 wounded, but these figures are not complete.

Special to The New York Times.

EL PASO, June 28.—A message was received today stating that 2,000 Federals, fleeing from Zacatecas toward San Luis Potosi, had been overtaken by Gen. Benavide, head of the Carranza brigade, and had been decisively defeated at Salinas, a point about midway between Zacatecas and San Luis Potosi. Four hundred Federals were killed or wounded, according to the Told Not to Endanger Foreigners in Attack on Rebels There—Refugees Taken Off by Our Boats.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Following general instructions from the Navy Department to protect the lives and property of Americans and foreigners in Santo Domingo, the little American gunboat Machias on Friday afternoon shelled the inner harbor of Puerto Plata, and with a few shots from her main battery silenced a battery of President Bordas's forces that was bombarding the town.

The bombardment was in violation of emphatic orders from Capt. Russell, commanding the American squadron, that the attack on the city, which is in the hands of rebels, be conducted in such a way as not to imperil the lives of foreigners.

Capt. Russell is in personal command of the first line battleship South Carolina, that was detached from service at Vera Cruz when conditions in Santo Domingo became threatening. His dispatch to the department, which, like all dispatches from Santo Domingo, took two days to come, makes no mention of casualties. His dispatch follows:

PUERTO PLATA, June 28, 1914. This afternoon, about 120, when the Machias artillery shelled the inner harbor of the city of Puerto Plata, the batteries could only certify they were both dead.

The authors of both attacks upon the Archduke are born Bosnians. Gavrino is a compositor, and worked for a few weeks in the Government printing works at Belgrade. He returned to Sarajevo a Servian chauvinist, and made no concealment of his sympathies with the King of Servia. Both he and the actual murderer of the Archduke and the Duchess expressed themselves to the police in the most cynical fashion about their crimes.

by splinters from the bomb. Several persons on the pavement were seriously hurt by the explosion of the bomb, which was thrown by a young man named Tabrinovich, (Gavrino's) who is a tylist from Trebenje, in Herzegovina, and is of Servian nationality. He was arrested some twenty minutes later.

The Archduke and his wife left the Town Hall, intending to visit those who had been injured by the bomb, when a schoolboy 19 years old, named Princip, who came from Grahovo, fired a shot at the Archduke's head. The boy fired from the shelter of a protecting house.

It is feared that it will lead to serious complications with that unruly kingdom, and may have far-reaching results. The future of the empire is a subject of general discussion. It is felt that the Servians have been treated too leniently, and some hard words are being said about the present foreign policy.

All the public buildings are draped in long black streamers and the flags are all at half-mast.

GERMANY INVADES BELGIUM

England Forced to Fight — Kaiser Formally Declares War Against the French

ALL CHANCE FOR SETTLEMENT OF GIGANTIC STRUGGLE ENDED BY DEVELOPMENTS OF TODAY

German troops invaded Russian Poland today and occupied the town of Kalisz.

The German army violated the neutrality of Belgium, of which Great Britain is protector. German troops occupied the Belgian town of Aries.

Belgium had previously refused to consider an ultimatum offering a certain agreement with Germany in case Belgium agreed to facilitate the movements of the German army.

So grave is the situation regarded that a general armistice of all parties probably will be forthcoming in a few days, while it was generally expected that Lord Kitchener was to be appointed.

Dowager Empress Maria of Russia was expected to leave Berlin on her way to Russia and to Denmark.

The Russian naval port of Libau on the Baltic was reported to have been bombarded by a German cruiser, which was engaged in a battle with a Russian cruiser.

The German fleet was reported sailing into the Baltic.

NATION'S DUTY TO AID AFFLICTED EUROPE

Special Message to Congress Asks Appropriation to Carry Out Prompt Measure for Relief of Americans Abroad.

Washington, Aug. 3.—The president by Special Message has advised in the Senate:

RAILROAD MANAGERS AGREE TO ACCEPT ARBITRATION

Washington, Aug. 3.—Managers of the Western Railways have accepted arbitration of the wage dispute with their enginemen and firemen.

The railroad managers just before noon advised the president they would accept the plan proposed by the federal board of mediation, which had already been passed on favorably by the representatives of the enginemen and firemen. The plan provides that the question of wages shall be arbitrated under the Newlands act and that rules and regulations enforced prior to October 1913, shall be restored.

Immediately after the call of the railroad managers the federal board of mediation was notified of the favorable outcome.

By the time the president had been notified of the acceptance of the plan, the president had already been notified of the acceptance of the plan, the president had already been notified of the acceptance of the plan.
