presents

SOMETHING TO HIDE

a thriller

by LESLIE SANDS

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

29th, 30th and 31st October, 1970 at 7.30

Synopsis of Scenes

The action of the play takes place in the living room room of a country cottage. The time is the present.

Act I		A night in September
Act II	Scene I	A few days later
	Scene II	Some weeks later
Act III	Scene I	Shortly afterwards
	Scene II	The next morning

The intervals between the Acts will last approximately ten minutes and during the second, coffee will be served.

Pauses between scenes will be as brief as possible.

About Tonight's Play

We do hope you have not heard too much about tonight's play, as there are so many unexpected twists that your enjoyment will be spoilt if you have been told about the plot beforehand!

Yes — there is a murder, but you'll have to wait to find out who is the victim and who is the murderer? In fact, hardly anyone is quite what you first thought . . .

If you enjoy the play, please keep its secrets, but do advertise it to your friends!

Our Next Production

To be presented in late January, will be "TONS OF MONEY".
